AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. The Third-Party Complaint fails to state claims upon which relief can be granted.
2. Third Party Plaintiffs' Complaint should be dismissed for failure to join one or more indispensable parties.
3. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred to the extent they rely on the retroactive application of any statute, regulation or standard of conduct.
4. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred to the extent they are predicated upon conditions located on private lands, within privately owned waters, on federal lands or any condition located within Indian Country.
5. The Third Party Complaint should be dismissed due to Third Party Plaintiffs' failure to identify and describe any specific lands they assert is a "facility" within the meaning of CERCLA.
6. Third Party Plaintiffs' knowledge of the alleged conditions in the IRW has continued for such a period of time as to eliminate the existence of any "imminent and substantial endangerment" as a matter of law.
7. Third Party Plaintiffs' Complaint should be dismissed due to the inadequacy of notice under 42 U.S.C. §6901 et. seq. and 42 U.S.C. § 9601 et.seq.
8. Third Party Plaintiffs' Complaint should be dismissed due to the inability to prove that any natural resource damage was caused by any release or discharge of a hazardous substance for which Sequoyah Fuels could be held liable.

9. The Third Party Complaint should be dismissed, in whole or in part, due to the inability to prove the existence of a release, threatened release, or natural resource damage resulting from each and every one of the constituents about which they complain.

10. The Third Party Complaint should be dismissed due to the inability to prove that the release of an alleged hazardous substance of Sequoyah Fuels would have caused the alleged natural resource damages apart from the alleged operations of the Third Party Plaintiffs.

11. Third Party Plaintiffs have failed to allege that they have performed any duty that was the duty of Sequoyah Fuels to perform, and thus are not entitled to equitable relief pursuant to an unjust enrichment claim.

12. This Court lacks personal and subject matter jurisdiction, and venue does not lie in the Northern District of Oklahoma, as most of the Illinois Watershed is in the Eastern District of Oklahoma.

13. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to failure to exhaust administrative remedies.

14. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to Third Party Plaintiffs' failure to identify any specific act, omission or release on the part of Sequoyah Fuels for which Plaintiffs seek to hold Sequoyah Fuels liable.

15. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitation, statutes of repose and the equitable doctrine of laches.

16. Plaintiffs' claims are barred under the doctrines of estoppel, waiver and consent.

17. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred until such time as Total Maximum Daily Loads have been established for each constituent alleged, and for each water body alleged, as required by the federal Clean Water Act.

18. The Third Party Complaint fails to state any facts to support any claim that any act or omission of Sequoyah Fuels directly and proximately resulted in any injury for which Plaintiffs can recover.

19. While continuing to deny the material allegations of the Complaint, Sequoyah Fuels states that Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by their own conduct that contributed to the injuries they claim.

20. Sequoyah Fuels states that Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by their unclean hands and the doctrine of in pari delicto.

21. Third Party Plaintiffs' injuries, if any, are the result of intervening and/or superseding causes.

22. Sequoyah Fuels states that Third Party Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by their failure to mitigate their alleged damages.

23. The damages of which Third Party Plaintiffs complain, if any, are the result of acts or omissions of individuals or entities over which Sequoyah Fuels has or had no control and for which Sequoyah Fuels has no responsibility.

24. Third Party Plaintiffs' claims should be dismissed by virtue of Third Party Plaintiffs' conduct, which results and resulted in the release of most, if not all, of the constituents alleged against Sequoyah Fuels.

25. Third Party Plaintiffs cannot state a claim against Sequoyah Fuels as Sequoyah Fuels does not have any discharge to the IRW.

26. Third Party Plaintiffs do not have a right of contribution for intentional torts.

27. Third Party Plaintiffs' claim for indemnity will not lie, as there is no express or implied contractual relationship or any other legal relationship with Sequoyah Fuels which gives rise to an indemnity claim.

28. Third Party Plaintiffs' Complaint should be dismissed, in whole or in part, due to Third Party Plaintiffs' attempt to recover multiple remedies for the same alleged injury.

29. Third Party Plaintiffs' claim for attorney's fees should be dismissed, as damages awarded for natural resource injuries cannot be utilized for the payment of attorney's fees.

30. Third Party Plaintiffs' claim for pre-judgment interest should be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, because the amount of damages, if any, was not readily ascertainable at the time Third Party Plaintiffs' lawsuit was commenced.

31. Sequoyah Fuels asserts that any award of punitive damages against Sequoyah Fuels would be unconstitutional as violative of the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment, U.S. Const. Amend. 36. Sequoyah Fuels hereby adopts and incorporates by reference any other statement of defense asserted by any other Defendant in this action.
